Sovereigns of German Empire in Conference Over President
Wilson's Demands

BUDAPEST, via Basel, Oct. 11.—Dr. Alexander Wekerle, the Hungarian prime minister, announced his resignation after an audience with King Charles.

Vienna newspapers received here say that a ministerial crisis in Hungary is imminent and that a coalition cabinet is probable.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Austria-Hungary and Turkey have informed Germany that they will accept President Wilson's peace terms, according to a dispatch to the Central News from Amsterdam.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Turkey has made a definite peace proposal to President Wilson, according to reports in circulation here.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Reuter's Limited says it learns that Turkey has approached the United States with a view to peace.

BASEL, Switzerland, Oct. 11.—The Frankfurter Zeitung announces that the Reichstag will be assembled October 15.

BASEL, Switzerland, Oct. 11.—A dispatch received here from Berlin says the official text of Secretary of State Lansing's note in reply to the peace proposal of the imperial German chancellor arrived in Berlin Friday.

ZURICH, Oct. 11.—(Havas).—Emperor Charles of Austria has issued a manifesto announcing his decision to unite Croatia, Slavonia, Bosnia, Herzegovina and Dalmatia in one state, according to advices from Vienna.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 11.—Emperor Charles of Austria has issued a manifesto announcing his decision to unite Croatia, Slavonia, Bosnia, Herzegovina and Dalmatia in one state, according to advices from Vienna.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Proposals of peace on the part of Turkey, reported in London dispatches, had not been received in Washington tonight.

At the Spanish embassy, which has charge of Turkish affairs in the United States and through which any peace proposal from Constantinople undoubtedly would be transmitted, it was said no intimation had come from Madrid that a communication of this nature might be expected.

Definite peace proposals by Turkey would occasion little surprise in official circles here, however. It was announced that Turkey was to despatch a note similar to that sent by Germany and Austria-Hungary, and in view of the fact that some time has been received, there has been a feeling in some quarters for several days that very definite action might be forthcoming soon.

The setting up of a new government composed of elements less loyal to Germany than the present cabinet has strengthened the belief that Turkey might decide to offer peace on terms similar to those accepted by Bulgaria.

Acceptance by Austria-Hungary and Turkey of President Wilson's terms, reported in an Amsterdam dispatch, also would not be surprising, it was said. Conditions in both countries are known to be favorable to the ending of the war at the earliest possible moment.

Involuntarily Compelled? The next move of the German government is being awaited by officials here with equanimity. This feeling is intensified by the fact that some time has been received, there has been a feeling in some quarters for several days that very definite action might be forthcoming soon.

Sanborn, Armona merchant, in a telegram received today from the navy bureau, which stated that the young sailor was among those who could not be accounted for following the arrival of twenty survivors aboard a British freighter at an Atlantic port yesterday.

A BRITISH PORT, Oct. 11.—A large number of American troops have been lost as the result of the sinking of the transport Otranto in the North Channel between the Scottish and Irish coasts in a collision with the steamer Kashmir.

The Otranto after the collision was dashed to pieces on the rocks off the south Scottish coast with a probable loss of 372 American soldiers. Of the 600 American soldiers on board the Otranto, 282 were killed. Seventeen were rescued alive at Islay, leaving 312 unaccounted for.

Thirty minutes after the crash, the British destroyer "Mounsey" herself, damaged by the heavy sea, appeared out of the haze in answer to the distress calls of the Otranto. AMSTERDAM, Oct. 11.—General Von Leiber, writing in the Deutsche Rundschau of Berlin, indicates the retirement of the German armies to the line of Lille-Manhagen-Sedan-Monmedy-Metz-Didenhofen.

PARIS, Oct. 11.—The victory in the Cambrai region increases daily in magnitude, producing indirect results over the whole front. The wedge driven into the German line to a depth of thirty kilometers in five days menaces the Douai-Laon massif.

Along the whole front the Allied pressure, notwithstanding the retrograde movement of the German line, is steadily increasing. The British are taking a great part in the driving of the enemy, Champagne and along the Meuse river, the French and the British.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Celebration of Liberty Day tomorrow throughout the nation is expected to fourth liberty bond managers to send the campaign forward with a jump.

Public meetings, and, needless to say, Liberty Day, have been called off nearly everywhere because of the influenza epidemic, but thousands of volunteers have been enlisted for home to home canvasses.

Commenting on the day's showing, the treasury tonight said: "In the face of high official pleas for united support of the loan and patriotic declarations that peace talks should not cause a slackening of subscription, the result and the outlook for the success of the loan is distinctly encouraging."

DRAFTTEES ARRANGE RALLY FOR TUESDAY

Tomorrow's Cross-Country to Attract Hundreds of New Soldiers

A drafted men's military rally for next week will be held at the Fresno Auditorium Tuesday night. Arrangements were completed yesterday afternoon. The officers have decided to make the drill and the speaking open to the public, and the families and friends of the draft men will be invited to the rally. Chairman Wiley of the Four Minute Men will obtain a speaker, Captain S. L. Gallaher will also have a brief message. All but a few minutes of the evening will be used for drill.

The Woodmen of the World drum corps will lead the "fall in" march from the Armory to the Auditorium, leaving at 7:30. Lieutenant Detor, Major Jones, Captain Gallaher and a staff of trained men will take charge of the new men.

Many men broke in new shoes yesterday for tomorrow's cross-country march, leaving the Armory at 8 o'clock. The secret of the direction and length of the march is being closely guarded by the staff. It will not be excessively long, however. Many of the men who will have charge, are also planning to hold a parade around the city at the Armory grounds next Thursday night.

Last night the Home Guard companies were almost doubled by draft men who came to drill with them. Sergeants and lieutenants of the volunteers and a score of recruits fell into line to participate. Several were 17-year-old boys. The youths of the 1919 class are welcomed in the nightly drills.

GIVES ADDRESS ON ANCIENT TABLETS

An innovation was started last night at the Win the War drive at Northside Christian church when Frederick M. Brooke, who is delivering a series of addresses in the church, gave an illustrated lecture on "Voices of the Past," preliminary to the main address of the evening. The lecture dealt with the inscriptions on the ruined cities of Palestine. It was announced that each night next week these short lectures would be continued, and illustrated with lantern slides. The subject of the main address last night was "The Triumph of Love."

Mr. Brooke said that all down through the ages, from the day that man was introduced to the world until the present moment, every good gift has come from God and been prompted by his unfailing love. "The supreme gift," he said, "was when God sent his Son to teach us true brotherhood. The world, the flesh and the devil all tend to lead man into forbidden paths. But God has selected the power of love as the means for drawing a man into the right path and holding him there."

It is announced that there will be no meeting on Saturday night, but on Sunday a big patriotic parade will start from the church and after marching through the streets, return to the church, where Mr. Brooke will deliver an address on the subject, "Builders for God." Sunday evening his subject will be, "Jesus—Where Son is Home." Meetings will continue each evening next week.

Y. W. WORKS WITH FOREIGN WOMEN

Fresno's International Institute which was started the first of September, when Miss Martha Chickering came here from San Francisco to look over the situation among foreign speaking women, will soon open its headquarters across the tracks. Twenty-four of these institutes have already been established by the war work council, and Fresno is one of the fourteen recently started or completed on the coast.

The work was started by Miss Chickering, and is being followed up by Miss Cora Heller and Miss Adele Burns of San Francisco, and Mrs. J. S. Olmsted of Los Angeles.

In a current number of the Pacific Coast News, the following article appears regarding the institute: "On September 4, Miss Chickering and Miss Heller started for Fresno and before night they were looking for a home across the tracks. The next day Mrs. Burns, newly appointed as German-speaking worker for Fresno, joined the other two, and together with Miss Maude Wolf, general secretary of the Fresno association, they rode to the extent of a hundred miles back and forth, up and down the streets of that section of Fresno where the foreign-born residents live. Here are to be found a Chinatown, a Japanese quarter, and Italian section, with the smallest, poorest houses occupied by Mexican, and hordes of all the part inhabited by the Russian Germans."

"An Miss Chickering had spent a month with Miss Ethel Richardson just fall when the latter, as educational director of the state commission of immigration and housing, had made very thorough and comprehensive study of Fresno's immigration problem. She was able to start the actual work of locating a home for the international institute. In all the planning and consulting, Miss Wolf was of invaluable service and, with her assistance, a fine little cottage, (now nearly completed) was rented as a home for the three prospective resident-workers, and with the cooperation of Mrs. J. C. Cross, who has been conducting a very successful day nursery in the Edison intermediate school during the summer, but who found it necessary to move the nursery in other quarters; a large hall with a seating capacity of 150 or more was sub-rented from the day-nursery. Both these buildings are in the Russian

Whatever Germany's reply may be to President Wilson's pointed questions, it is a notable fact that autocracy, with its back to the wall, is looking toward, if not to democracy as its only hope. An effort has been made to form a coalition cabinet. While it still has the fatal defect of being created from above, still all the parties are called to the service of the fatherland, instead of some of them, particularly the Socialists, being regarded as enemies within, scarcely less menacing than the Allied armies smashing the outer defenses. The summoning by the Kaiser of the sovereigns of all the German Federal states, before making the momentous decision affecting the war, is to be sure, not much of a concession to democracy, and still it does approach the democratic principle. For instance, if the Kaiser had summoned such a crown council before running amuck in 1914, it is doubtful if the war would ever have occurred. At least, the Kaiser is much less every much like - of an autocrat now than he was in 1914.

The efforts toward political reforms in Germany, however, do not ring true.

WILL UNITE ALL POLISH DISTRICTS

Regency Council Appears
Resolved to Throw Off
Germanism

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 10.—Prince Maximilian, the German imperial chancellor, has telegraphed to the Polish regency council, now meeting at Moscow, assurance that he "is firmly resolved to shape the relations between the German empire and the newly arisen kingdom of Poland in a spirit of justice and understanding of the vital interests on both sides."

AMSTERDAM, Thursday, Oct. 10.—The Polish regency council now meeting at Warsaw has issued a manifesto in which, after referring to the peace principles set forth by President Wilson which will lead to the creation of an independent state, comprising all Polish districts, announces that the council has decided:

First, to dissolve the state council; second, to summon immediately a government composed of representatives of all classes and political tendencies; third, to impose on this government the obligation in conjunction with representatives of the political groups to work out an electoral statute for a political diet based on broad and democratic principles and within a month at the latest, to lay this statute before the regency.

Immediately afterwards it will summon the diet and submit for its decision the question of the further establishment of a supreme state authority in whose hands the regency council, in conformity with its oath, has to place its authority.

TROOPS AND MONEY MUST BE KEPT APACE.

We Have the Men Says
General March, But What
About the Bonds

Remarkable Advances in Last Few Days But the Beginning

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—With more than 1,000,000 American troops embarked for the front and an army of 2,000,000 men in preparation to make victory certain, General March, chief of staff, at his weekly conference today, sounded an urgent call for popular support for the fourth Liberty loan in order that the American armies may have full support.

"This is no time to hang back with the idea that the war is over," General March said. "The thing to do is to turn in the men and money and make victory certain for the fourth Liberty loan."

The chief of staff outlined his review of military operations with an outline of the absolute need that ample funds be forthcoming to back up the fighting men at the front.

"The war department," he said, "has had the draft ages changed so as to secure more than two million additional first class fighting men and has demanded of Congress over eight billion dollars to raise, equip, train and transport this victory army to France. The fourth Liberty loan is now before the people of the United States. Without this financial backing nothing can be accomplished."

Sweeping Gains
Turning to the great war map, General March pointed out the sweeping advance of the Anglo-American forces in the Cambrai-St. Quentin region. With the capture of Le Cateau, he said, the British had gained fourteen miles in three days, "more than they gained in any consecutive three-day period since they first started their drive east of Amiens in August."

"The enemy's resistance temporarily at least was badly shaken and disorganized," General March said. "At Le Cateau the British are only fourteen miles from Amiens. This town is a very important strategic point. It is the junction of the main railroad which I have spoken about before running from Valenciennes through to Metz, and the other great northern artery called the Liege-Meuse railway. These two roads meet at this point. An advance of about nine miles in this direction will put that junction under our fire and it is a point of vital importance."

On Tuesday and Wednesday, the

CALIFORNIA HAS 296 GOLD STARS IN HER CROWN

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 11.—California service that will now carry 296 gold stars, according to a tabulation yesterday by the state council of defense.

Those killed in action number 158; died of wounds, 47; died of disease, 34; died of airplane accident, 16; died of accident and other causes, 29, making a total of 296 California honor men who have given their lives in defense of their country.

As the total number of Californians in the service is more than 140,000, the percentage of actual loss is shown to be very small.

LUDENDORFF MAY BE SENT HOME

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 11.—General Ludendorff, who recently was spoken of as the successor of Erich von Stein, head of the German war ministry, today was appointed to that post, according to a dispatch received from Berlin.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 11.—General Ludendorff today announced the resignation of two leading German commanding generals as the result of the appointment of General Von Seeckt as minister of war.

The German newspaper pointed out that General Ludendorff and Field Marshal Hindenburg, who recently have lost much of their popularity in Germany.

French and American forces attacked east of the Meuse, and advanced one and one-half miles on a front of four miles, clearing the right bank of the main American advance. Here, as at Le Cateau, an advance of ten miles would sever the Metz-Valenciennes railroad.

The largest bombing expedition in this sector when thirty-two tons of bombs were dropped on the cantonments near Damvillers.

In the north, the British advanced along the Meuse is but twelve miles from Valenciennes. The communication lines of the enemy are threatened and the enemy is beginning to withdraw from the line to the Scarpe. The British on Wednesday advanced one and one-half miles on a ten-mile front.

Between the Aisne and the Meuse, in the American sector, there has been stiff fighting for local points of advantage, and the pocket in the line on the Argonne, south of the Grand-Prie gap, has been wiped out.

The constant pressure at many points on the line is keeping the enemy's reduced forces continually in action preventing adequate periods of rest for exhausted divisions.

Also a large quantity of black walnuts will be on sale. The Church of Christ (First) of Nevada avenue will have charge today.

An important message was forwarded to the local chairman of Red Cross Home Service yesterday in the following telegram from Gulfport, Miss:

"Phillip Caruthers, your county, has son here seriously ill, pneumonia, advise."

C. S. Holcombe, Field Director.

All efforts of the department to communicate with the above mentioned Philip Caruthers have been without avail, and an appeal through the press is resorted to.

FACE SCORCHED

C. B. Miller of the Liberty cafe was treated at the emergency hospital yesterday for burns received from the flame of an oil burner flaring into his face while lighting it. His injuries were painful but not serious.

Al Weston, a butcher of the California market, was attended by Dr. Grave Hopkins for scalp wounds received through an iron hook striking him on the head.

STRANGER DIES FROM INFLUENZA

COUNTY HOSPITAL HAS 6 FLU CASES

"One man and five women have arrived here lately for treatment for the Spanish influenza," said Dr. Morzun of the county hospital last night. "Of this number, four were received within the past eighteen hours. The destruction of food may lose it." She neglected, no fear need be felt, if the patient seeks medical aid immediately.

"Even though the first symptoms are slight, it is advisable to treat it at once."

"One patient died since October 3 and two since the 8th."

IN THE SWIM

Captain Cass' team took Captain Van Buren's team into camp a second time last night at the Nat. Swimming Club meet to the tune of 1 of 11.

Cass' team was an easy winner in the 300-yard relay race, Barsotti and Zimmerman taking first place for his team in the 25-yard and 100-yard also.

Van Buren's men took first place in the 50-yard and second and third in the 50-yard and 100-yard events.

After the races the members of the club entertained the spectators with burlesque, high and fancy diving, acrobatic by Miss O'Connor and Mr. Kendall of the Olympic Club.

Three more weeks will close the medal contest that has kept the boys on the water for the past three months.

Bowling Notes.

J. B. Jones, the "champion" of the older days, is getting in fair shape and soon will be able to take on the best ones.

Some of the bowlers had their heads together claiming Jackson is using a loaded ball at the auditorium for all the directors at the next meeting.

Bradley scared the natives the other afternoon when he started a game with eight straight strikes, finishing the game with two spares for a score of 249.

Harry Coffey sure has a fast club this year. The boys had no trouble turning in a total of 2,732 for their first week.

A banquet will be held Sunday, October 20, at the auditorium for all the bowlers to celebrate the first anniversary of the opening of the Fresno Bowling Auditorium.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Waiving of immigration laws to permit the readmission regardless of physical condition, within two years after peace is declared, of aliens who enlisted in the military service of the United States or any of its co-belligerents is authorized in a joint resolution passed today by the Senate. The House already had adopted the measure.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Six officers and crewmen of the German cargo ship, sunk in collision with the steamer George C. Henry, October 4, were officially reported missing today by the navy department.

R. Edgren COLUMN

By ROBERT EDGREN

Copyright, 1918, by The Press Publishing Company (The New York Evening World).

It was 10 o'clock at night when I located Tommy Ryan at his home in Syracuse, after a house-in-house search conducted by Mr. Hopkins of that burg. Tommy, it appears, had just moved from the country to be near his boxing club.

The Ryan house was dark and repeated rings on the door brought the former champion of all-weights and middleweights to the door. Tommy was clad in a long, old-fashioned night shirt that draped around his ankles in artistic folds. He was yawning and rubbing his eyes.

"You know," said Tommy, apologetically, "I always go to bed at 10 o'clock, except on fight nights."

"Perhaps it is this excellent habit that makes Ryan look about 30 when he really is 35," I said. "You have a thick mop of dark-brown hair, his heavy flat and thick wrists, and the once-swiftest ankles in the world peered from the all-overlapping night shirt. As he yawned the bulging muscles of his chest and arms showed plainly. Ryan looked fit to fight for a life.

Inviting us to take possession of a couple of chairs, Ryan sat down, unburdened, and prepared to be interviewed.

"Tommy," said I, "I want to know how you became the best middleweight of your time. How did you become a fighter?"

"I guess it was in my blood," said Ryan. "It was the French and the Irish in me. A lot of people used to think I was a Jew. My father was a French Canadian from up in the woods, and my mother was clear-strain Irish. I was born near here, and have a lot of relatives around Syracuse. All my people were glassblowers by trade. I ran away from home when I was a little boy and went out to the lumber camps in Michigan. Lived around from camp to camp, washing dishes and doing odd jobs, and that was where I began fighting. There's always a lot of fighting between the lumbermen in the camps."

"When I was 16 I was strongly built and weighed about 125 pounds. I picked up a natural fighting style and never changed it. I always had very fast footwork. I won many hard fights by outstepping the other fellow. I always hit with the palm of my hand turned down. I never used the palm of the hand and I never used the uppercut the fighters use now. You can hit harder and faster with the palm down, because you shoot them in straight that way, or if you hook him a shorter hook."

As he naturally developed a trick of watching my opponent's left knee, I never looked at a man's face in a fight in my life. Watching his knee, I knew every move he was about to make and I could beat him to it.

Barre Flats and to a Finish

"I had fought a few fellows in my camp and beat them they began sending me around from camp to camp to fight the best men of other outfits. There were no weights in those fights. I met them all, big and little. I used to knock the big fellows out and they didn't know how I could do it, but it was because they all swung at me and I beat them to it with a straight punch. Some tough birds, but I was drifting in rounds—just stood up and fought as long as we could, bare fists. It was fair fighting, stand up, face to face, and no kicking allowed. Sometimes a fight would last half an hour or an hour, with no rests until the knockout."

"When I began fighting as a professional one of the first men I met was Dick Egan. He looked me completely every time he stepped out, at first I used a side-step, but I didn't know it, and nobody else had my side-step in front of me. I learned his tricks as the fight went along and knocked him out in the thirty-third round."

"One of my early fights was with George Barrow of Australia. Barrow was clever and strong, but he was slow. He had a wicked kidney blow. I didn't know anything about it, but the first time he used it I happened to catch it on my left arm while I was drifting in my body, so I stopped that blow with my arm after that and drove straight rights to his jaw."

"One of my hardest fights was with Danny Greenham for the welterweight championship. Greenham was a better boxer than I was, but I was younger and I outlasted him and knocked him out in the twenty-sixth round. We put on boxing gloves for a photograph and then took them off and fought it out with skin-tight gloves. We both picked our faces and bodies with bile for a month to toughen them for our fight. There were some great fights in those days."

"I think, but Fitzsimmons was the greatest of them all. He was a good, but I weighed only 115 pounds when I fought him, and he was 160. He was a real fighter, a real champion. I fought him a few times, but I didn't win. The first time I fought him I thought I was going to win, but I didn't and he went in for a knockout. He gave me a bad beating and I learned something from him. No, he didn't write a letter to me. I just didn't train."

"It makes me laugh when I hear of the big purses fighters get now. A thousand dollars was a good purse when I was champion—$500 for each man. I've fought championship fights for $500."

Those Were the Strenuous Days

"The toughest fight I ever had was with Tommy West. I had beaten West and thought I had his number, but everything went wrong the night we met in Louisville. West knocked me down about four times in the first round and kept knocking me down right along up to the ninth. I came near being whipped that night. I had four false teeth and forgot to take them out. West smashed them with a punch and one went down my throat and stuck there and nearly strangled me. I fought about a few rounds and was so tired I had to stop. That was just about to give in, when West hit me an awful belt on the jaw and knocked the tooth loose, so that it flew out of my mouth. That saved me."

"In the hard fighting I was baited, and I protested to referee that I was hurt. I was a kid of a referee. He just said to me: 'You've got a head, haven't you?' I took that for advice and baited West and broke his nose. That was the last of the good men I fought was Kid Carter. I had something on Carter and could always beat him. We fought in Chicago, and he knocked me down in the first round—hard! I just managed to get up, and as Carter ran in to finish me, I put all I had into a punch in the pit of his stomach. He clinched and hung on, and whispered: 'Let me play six rounds, Tommy.' He had me nearly out, but he didn't know it. I tried my best to put him out, but couldn't do it. He thought I could, though, and thought I held back. So when we met for the championship at Fort Erie, I had his number. I made him weigh 155 that night and he had a hard time getting down to it. I was sick and weighed only about 145 pounds, so I knew I must get him quick. I tore into him at the start and it wasn't the kind of a fight he was used to. He was hit down with a right on the jaw, and knocked him down every time he got up, until his hands dropped, and then threw over a good one and finished him in the sixth."

"When I was in the sixth round, and I had it at the start, when I was a boy in the lumber camps."

"They used to say I had Corbett's footwork. Why, I used that Corbett footwork in all my fights for six years before I ever saw Corbett. I met some men in my early fights who were better with their hands than I was, but my footwork beat them. I always was a little fellow and I had short arms and had to get in and out a lot to hit them without being hit. I only weighed from 145 to 146 pounds when I was middleweight champion. You don't see champions giving away weight like that."

Tommy Ryan is one of the retired fighters blessed with a bank account. He has made a lot of money in Syracuse real estate, and when not busy running a boxing club puts on buildings."

Hard work keeps me in good health," said Tommy, showing the calloused steps on his hands. "I get up at daylight every morning."

CANADIAN RAILWAY MAGNATE RETIRES

MONTREAL, Oct. 10.—Lord Shuggles, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, resigned today at a meeting of the board's directors, but will remain as chairman of the board. He is succeeded by E. W. Beatty of Montreal, who has been a vice president.

Sir George Bury retired as a vice president on account of ill health and is succeeded by Grant Hall of Winnipeg, who has been vice president in charge of western lines.

Lord Shuggles, sometimes called the "King of railway presidents," is regarded as one of the makers of modern Canada. He has headed the Canadian Pacific since June 12, 1898.

Since the outbreak of the war he has personally directed the transportation of men and munitions over the Canadian Pacific system, which was shrouded at the disposal of the British government.

He was born in Milwaukee, Wis., in 1852 and joined the railroad as general purchasing agent in 1882.

PORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 10.—Cadet Perry Lyons of Vicksburg, Miss., was killed in an airplane accident here today while receiving formation flying drill. He is survived by a mother in Vicksburg and several brothers in service in France.

BERNSTORFF PLAN TO BUY FACTORIES

Revealed Through Further Investigations by Palmer

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Revelation of the method by which Count Von Bernstorff and other German propagandists, failing in their effort to stop the shipment of munitions to the Allies by blowing up ships and factories, organized a $2,000,000 pseudo-American corporation—the Bridgeport Project company—to take big orders from the Allies and then purposely fail to fill them, was made here tonight by A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian, in announcing the taking over of 19,900 of the 20,000 shares of capital stock of the Bridgeport Project company.

In addition Mr. Palmer stated the company had reported to him other property worth $500,000 held by it for and in behalf of Germany.

The action followed many months of inquiry by Frances D. Gowan, director of the bureau of investigation of the alien property custodian's office, and involved the names of Von Bernstorff, Dr. Heinrich Albert, Dr. Hermann Neubauer, Captain Von Tappen, Wolf Von Igell, Carl Heynen, one time American consul in Mexico, recently interned, and Hans Tauscher, husband of Madame Gaudin, the American representative of Krupp Munitions and other German munition manufacturers.

MANILA, Oct. 10.—The rice tariff has been suspended by the Philippine Senate, making effective a proclamation by Governor General Francis Burton Harrison directing that such a move be taken to lower the cost of living in the islands.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The day so rapidly fostered by the German propaganda office of Prince Maximilian of Baden, as chancellor was a long step toward the dissemination of the propaganda of the peace, copies of which have just reached Washington. One is the text of a speech the prince delivered last December in the Reichstag, where he was elected president, and the other is a letter written by him to his cousin, Prince Heinrich.

These papers show the prince in his true character and are accepted as well as by the President Wilson's inquiry as to whether in seeking peace he speaks for those in Germany who have conducted the war up to this time. They disclose the prince as holding in secret contempt the propaganda of democratic government for the Central Powers.

The letter was called forth by the speech which in some quarters was criticized because of its unqualified condemnation of the German government's conduct of the war. The prince wrote his cousin, and the prince's words were distributed to the public for general distribution over the empire.

In the letter to his cousin, Prince Heinrich, he described his true feelings when he was asked to speak for the Central Powers.

"As I am opposed to Western propaganda," he wrote, "I am opposed to the people of Berlin, or rather of Germany, that I understand the world, but that such institutions are not real enemies for them."

OPTOMETRISTS

Lieutenant Charles N. Clayton writes to his father, Rev. Thomas Clayton of Dinuba, of his safe arrival overseas. Lieutenant Clayton is attached to Company 1, Fifty-second Pioneer Infantry. He writes that the voyage over was pleasant and fast, and states that the preparations made by the government for the comfort of the troops and the speeding up of war supplies are beyond anything he expected.

Carl Palmer writes to his mother, Mrs. J. B. Smith of Fresno, that he has arrived in French waters. He is in the United States navy. In his letter he states that they had an exciting trip across.

News of the arrival overseas of Marshall Bradley Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Williams of Transcality, has been received by his parents. He is a member of the Radio Company A, 115th Field Signal Battalion. Before leaving for France he was stationed at Camp Kearny. He is a graduate of the high school department of St. Mary's college and enlisted on reaching his eighteenth birthday.

Alfred Corvello has announced his arrival overseas to his friends in Fresno. He is a member of Company B, of the 85th Infantry, and was in training at Camp Lewis before his departure for Europe.

Whose Fight?

THREE MILLION MEN—half of them in France—many more in training.

But is this all their fight?

It takes ten men at work to keep one fighting man at the front.

It takes millions of dollars just to keep this army fed. It costs thousands of dollars every time one battery of big guns lays down a barrage.

Is it any wonder then, that the United States is spending at the rate of fifty millions of dollars a day in war and war planes? And with that grand total as the interest on a far vaster principal, which must support this colossal cost or all this task will have been in vain, whose fight do you think this is?

The man's in the trench? The fellow's on the supply-train? The chap's on the gunner's deck?

No, it is yours!

It is your fight, Mr. Banker—yours, Mr. Manufacturer—yours, Mr. Merchant—yours, Mr. Mechanic—yours, Mr. Worker—yours, Mr. Farmer. This fight is yours, all of you who are left behind, as much or even more than it is the man's in the trench.

For that man, though three million strong, cannot raise a hand in the cause of democracy, he cannot even raise a hand in self-defense, except for you.

He is potent only as you are potent. He can fight only as you will fight. The difference is only this: his fight is expressed in nerve and ammunition, yours in work and dollars.

The Fourth Liberty Loan is the world's biggest drive back of the lines. It is the test of the financial reserves of this entire country. It will gauge the power that you intend to put back of the fighting men in France for the next half year or more to come.

In fact, it will show the value you place on the heritage of liberty, which three million men have taken up arms to defend for you today.

Take care when you sign that subscription blank for Liberty Bonds that the amount you set squares as nearly as it can with all your heart acknowledges this heritage to be worth to you.
